

»»»» Tomorrow's Promise Scholarship Fund

The Tomorrow's Promise Fund was established in 1995 to assist bright, hard-working students living in public housing in continuing their education after high school. Since 1995, Richmond Redevelopment and Housing Authority has awarded over $200,000 in financial assistance to approximately 75 students. These students represent distinguished schools around Virginia as well as the United States.

Who Is Eligible for A Tomorrow's Promise Scholarship?

Any RRHA student who meets the following criteria is eligible for a Tomorrow's Promise scholarship:

- High school senior planning to attend an accredited college or vocational school
- Resident of RRHA public housing
- At least a 2.0 G.P.A
- Extra-Curricular Activities
- Strong Work Ethic
- Volunteerism and Community Service

When Are The Scholarships Awarded?

Annually, Richmond Redevelopment and Housing Authority recognizes its Tomorrow's Promise Scholarship recipients as well as all public housing graduates in June. The actual scholarship check is mailed in increments of $500/semester to the recipient's school.

How can I support this Scholarship Fund?

RRHA welcomes the financial contributions of individuals, businesses and corporations.

If you would like to contribute or for more information on Richmond Redevelopment and Housing Authority's Tomorrow's Promise Scholarship Fund, please contact:

Mr. Ralph W. Stuckey
Program Manager
info@rrha.state.va.us
(804)780-4291

Or Write To Us @

Richmond Redevelopment & Housing Authority
901 Chamberlayne Parkway
Richmond, Virginia 23220

